ORDER EXTENDING TIME FOR FILING

On September 19, 2003, the Hearing Officer entered the Order Granting Joint Motion to Reset Hearing Date and Set Pre-Hearing Status Conference ("Order"). The Order required the parties to file, either jointly or separately, documentation informing the Hearing Officer of the status of all remaining discovery disputes within ten (10) days of the date of the Order.

On Thursday, September 25, 2003, Counsel for Ben Lomand Communications, Inc. contacted the Hearing Officer via telephone and, after stating that he was calling with the permission of Counsel for Frontier Communications of Tennessee, advised the Hearing Officer that both parties required additional time to provide the above-referenced information. Based on the foregoing, the Hearing Officer finds that additional time is necessary for the parties to provide the above-referenced information.

Therefore, pursuant to TRA Rule 1220-1-2-.22, the Hearing Officer concludes that the parties shall have an additional fourteen (14) days from the date of this Order to provide the above-referenced information.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

The parties are directed to file, either jointly or separately, documentation informing the Hearing Officer of the status of all remaining discovery disputes within fourteen (14) days of the date of this Order.

Randal Gilliam, Hearing Officer
